SIGNATURE KEYNOTE

LIVE F.R.E.S.H.™

"How Professionals Break Through Stale Thinking to Create Meaningful Results at Work."

At every stage of a professional career, one challenge shows up again and again: feeling stuck. Not because people lack talent or effort—but because familiar thinking quietly limits focus, confidence, and execution.

In this high-energy, interactive keynote, Frank Kitchen helps professionals identify what's holding them back and replace it with a clear, practical way forward. Using his proven LIVE F.R.E.S.H.™ Framework, Frank equips participants to sharpen focus, take ownership, and engage with their work in ways that produce real results—whether they're leading, contributing, or growing a business. This is not a motivational pep talk. It's a professional reset designed to move people from intention to action, leaving them with clarity, confidence, and momentum to produce results that last.
